As a participant in eTutoring, you could have access to:

Our Online Writing Lab where you can submit a draft of your paper to a tutor, ask for specific feedback, and receive your work back with a tutor's response within 24-48 hours.

Note: Our eTutors will not edit, correct, or rewrite your paper, but will help you improve your work and writing skills.

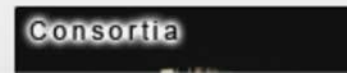

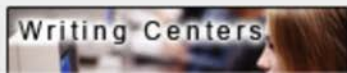

Live Tutoring where you can meet with a tutor in one-on-one tutoring sessions via a fully interactive, virtual online environment.

Offline Questions where you can leave a specific question for an eTutor who will respond within 48 hours.

How eTutoring Can Benefit Your Institution

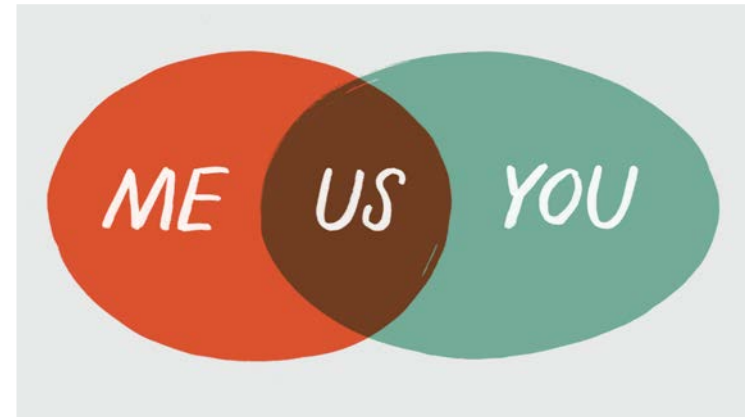

Customization

- Any school can have tutoring in all subjects available:
 - math, science, accounting, statistics, calculus, biology, research methods, information literacy, chemistry, anatomy and physiology, and more in addition to the flagship writing tutoring.
- All schools have access to synchronous and asynchronous tutoring sessions

Collaboration

- eTutoring does not dictate to member schools.
- Schools collaborate to decide what services and processes are most beneficial
- Schools offer comments and suggestions to improve services and the platform

Our Tutors (Your Tutors)

- eTutoring uses trained, experienced, and evaluated writing tutors
- A strength of eTutoring has always been institutions contributing the work of tutors they know and trust

Quality Control

- eTutoring provides technical support through the Western Consortium
- An annual review of writing tutors including self-review/reflection
- Results shared with each institutions' coordinator and with the tutor

Great Value

- In AY 2018-19:
 - 1583 students used writing tutoring 2-3 times.
 - Over 500 used writing tutoring 5-6 times.
 - Over 100 used writing tutoring 10 times or more.
- A student can use the eTutoring writing lab up to three times for each writing assignment

High Student Satisfaction

- In AY 2018-19 academic year, students reported an overall satisfaction rate of 3.59 out of 4 for the tutoring received

Building Student Confidence

- eTutoring tracks student confidence levels with the goal of increasing confidence through support
- In AY 2018-19, fewer than half of students self-identified as confident or very confident (and fewer than 1/3 of ESL students)
- Less confident students tend to use the service more frequently!

Archiving and Reporting

- Records and archives are kept for all synchronous and asynchronous sessions
- Coordinators have access to archives and records to address questions and issues as they arise
- Each institution has access to its own stats, including tutor activity, synchronous and asynchronous sessions, student use, satisfaction, etc.

Flexibility

- Your school's eTutoring term is the date range that you provide
- Opt in or out of summer (annual contracts include summer... cost is based on total annual sessions)
- Tutors schedules are created by eTutoring coordinator, but you tell us when to schedule your tutors

Training

- eTutoring trains your tutors in eTutoring protocols
- Self-paced, interactive training modules
- Master tutor
 - reviews new tutor submissions
 - helps determine when tutors are ready
 - communicates with campus coordinators
 - supports new tutors as they begin, offering suggestions through the first three months of tutoring

How it works

Initial Student Submission

Student Name:	Kyle M
Course Title:	Psychology 101-34
Subject:	Intro to Psychology
Date Submitted:	12/11/18 8:57 AM
Document Title:	The Big Project - Psychological profile of Little Edie
Document Description:	So throughout the semester we wrote papers on the different aspects of mental disorders focusing on Little Edie from the movie Grey Gardens as the one being diagnosed. For the final assignment we have to take all of these papers and put them all together into one large Psychological profile. I left the titles of each paper so you would know where each one ends and the other begins, this should help with making sure it transitions properly. No required length or anything, only that we have to submit here before we can submit it to them.
Help Area:	Transition between each essay, if there are any grammatical errors
Type of Help Requested:	Analyzing the psychological profile of Little Edie.
